Reach people who value substance and style

TMA is one of Australia’s most respected Christian newspapers. It is read and enjoyed by Anglicans and other Christians in Victoria, interstate and overseas.

TMA features well-balanced stories of social, ethical and spiritual significance, and provides in-depth articles across a broad range of current and topical issues.

TMA, published monthly by the Anglican Diocese of Melbourne, has an audited circulation of 11,718. It is distributed to over 220 parishes, schools, colleges, welfare agencies and institutions.

TMA received the coveted Gutenberg Award for excellence from the Australasian Religious Press Association (ARPA) in 2015, having also received it in 2006, 1998 and 1994. Judges of the 2015 award described TMA as a “thoroughly professional production... with an excellent use of photos, especially on the front page, to complement the quite diverse range of content.”

It was also named ARPA’s 2017 Publication of the Year. The Award citation states that “TMA wins the award on the breadth and diversity of its content” ... “The film and book reviews give a perspective absent from the mainstream media reviews, and there is a professionalism in the writing...”

TMA – Technical Specifications

TMA is printed in full colour on 60gsm Norstar stock.

Material Requirements – PDF Artwork

Please email artwork to ads@melbourneanglican.org.au

Please ensure PDF artwork complies with the PDF/X-1a:2001 standard with no spot colours. (This ISO standard enforces the embedding of all fonts and graphics.)

Time spent modifying PDF to conform to the PDF/X-1a:2001 standard may incur the “design surcharge” price. If we are not able to amend the PDF conform to this standard, we can redesign it at the “design surcharge” rate.

Please note that most PDFs produced by Microsoft software (e.g. Word, Publisher) do not conform to the PDF/X-1a:2001 standard, and we will typically redesign such ads and charge the “design surcharge” price.

TMA column widths:

1 column = 49mm	2 columns = 103mm	3 columns = 157mm
4 columns = 211mm	5 columns = 265mm

General guidelines for creating artwork:

1. Before you start creating your ad, set your page/artwork size to the exact size that the ad will be (for example 103mm wide x 120mm high).
2. Ensure any photos and graphics are at least 200dpi.
3. If you are creating a Mono (black/white) ad, please make sure that all artwork is defined as a percentage of black ink, rather than a mixture of colours (even though this may look black on screen).
4. If you are creating a colour ad, small type (less than 14 point) will print more sharply if it is defined as 100% of black ink, rather than a mixture of colours (even though this may look black on screen).
5. To ensure readability we recommend any type be at least 8 point – preferably 9 point or greater.
6. Reversed or outlined type should be at least 12 point (14 point if it is reversed out of a colour).
7. We do accept a wide variety of formats for artwork, but we reserve the right to charge the “design surcharge” price for anything apart from PDF/X-1a:2001. Formats accepted include: EPS (Encapsulated PostScript), TIFF, JPEG, Adobe Photoshop (preferably save as Photoshop PDF), Adobe Illustrator, Adobe InDesign, Quark Xpress (up to version 4.1), and Microsoft Publisher.

Material Requirements – ‘design surcharge’

If you would like us to design your ad for you, please email the copy (and any graphics or logos you want included) to: ads@melbourneanglican.org.au

Feel free to use formatting to indicate which part of the ad should be the headline, subhead, body copy, etc.

Any graphics must be at least 200dpi. If you have a logo which has high contrast and/or fine detail, it may need to be as high as 1200dpi.

Proofs are sent via email for your approval prior to publication. Please note that we may not necessarily wait for your approval before publishing (see our terms and conditions). Please contact us at your earliest convenience if you have not received your proof.
